Located in AMBLETEUSE, in Le Pas de Calais

The Côte d'Opale's 120 km of beaches, dunes and cliffs unfurl between Calais and Berck-sur-Mer. It's a landscape full of contrasts, mixing the bright green of its meadows with the blue-grey of the waves: a region which lives from the sea and plays with the wind. The Côte d'Opale is traditionally both influenced by the sea and rooted in the land, an alliance that, although often violently broken throughout history, has always been repaired, to form a fragile balance between the waves of the Channel and the furrows of the fields. Apartment on the ground floor, facing the sea. Terrace, car park. Living room with setting corner, kitchen corner. 1 double bedroom, and 1 bedroom with 2 single beds. Shower room, toilets. Services included.
